

CONNOLLY REPLIES TO CRAIG'S CHARGES

Queens Borough President in tractor's Suit Against City Plains Brother's Connection

Borough President Connolly at Queens, wrote a statement to-day answering affidavits filed in the Supreme Court yesterday by Comptroller Craig, who charged Connolly authorized payments of the city's money to the Asarco Engineering and Contracting Company in spite of evidence the company was guilty of collusive bidding and furnishing inferior materials for road building in that borough.

The company is seeking through mandamus proceedings to compel the city to pay four vouchers, amounting to $29,000. Mr. Craig in his affidavits said two payments have been made on the strength of Mr. Connolly's indorsement and Connolly did deduct 25 per cent, because of the inferiority of material. Mr. Craig also charged Connolly's brother, John J. Connolly, has been a foreman for the company and has indorsed notes for the company.

Mr. Connolly in his answering statement said his brother never attempted to conceal his connection with the company and the note transaction was only "an accommodation indorsement." He said Craig first became conspicuously hostile to him after he (Connolly) had been mentioned as a possible candidate for Comptroller to succeed Mr. Craig.

WOMEN FIGHT FIRE ARMED WITH MOPS

"Wet Broom Brigade" Saves Home of Widow With Five Children in Forest Blaze.

(Special to The Evening World.) ONECO, Conn., March 23.—When the dense pine woods were set on fire by locomotive sparks to-day, and the entire town turned out upon call of Judge F. W. Hazard to save the home of a widow and her five little ones, conspicuous among the fire fighters were Mrs. Blanch Mullane, Mrs. Ann Penry, Mrs. Felix La Point and other women.

Armed with wet brooms, mops and wet bags, they sailed at the smothering wall of fire like Amazons of old in battle and were among the leading spirits in the final victory over the fire.

A half dozen had fired along State line towns in the past few days have been fought by women equally successfully, showing they can act as well as vote.

Hebrew Institute for Greenpoint.

An application was made to the Brooklyn Supreme Court to-day for the incorporation of the Hebrew Institute and Centre of Greenpoint, the purpose being to promote Jewish activities in that section of Brooklyn. A club house is to be erected containing gymnasium, reading and meeting rooms. Henry Goodman, No. 719 Humboldt Street, heads the list of incorporators.

JUST DRAW THE BELT

MAKE THIS TEST

You who think your old-fashioned corset is correct and supporting your body, undo your garter from your stockings, sit down, then stand up, and you will find your corset under your arms and breast, annoying your body, abusing and irritating your skin and pressing on your internal organs.

Then try on a Nulife and without the necessity of fastening the garters at all to the stockings, just draw the belt and it will always set where it belongs whether fastened by garters or not. A Nulife Corset always remains in place. Never rubs, slides or moves, whether you sit, stand, walk or lie down.

Supports without binding. The snuggler it fits the freer you feel.
Allows every bodily freedom of action as though uncorseted. Fits
